

CODE OF ETHICS OF DIRECTORS

A. PREAMBLE

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Westports Holdings Berhad (the “Company”) has adopted the following Code of Ethics (the “Code”) for Directors of the Company and its subsidiaries (the “Group”). This Code is intended to focus the Board and each Director on areas of ethical risk, provide guidance to Directors to help them recognise and deal with ethical issues, provide mechanisms to report unethical conduct and help foster a culture of honesty and accountability.

B. PRINCIPLE

This Code is based on the core principles of integrity, transparency, accountability, responsibility, sincerity and corporate social responsibility.

C. PURPOSE

This Code is intended to focus on the Board and each Director on areas of ethical risk and help foster a culture of honesty and accountability.

This Code is formulated to enhance the standard of corporate governance with the intention of achieving the following aims:

- i) To establish a standard of ethical behaviour for Directors based on acceptable values.
- ii) To uphold the spirit of professionalism, objectivity, transparency and accountability in line with the legislation, regulations and environmental and social responsibility governing a company.

No code or policy can anticipate every situation that may arise, or replace the thoughtful behaviour of an ethical Director. Directors are encouraged to bring questions about particular circumstances that may implicate one or more of the provisions of this Code to the attention of the Chairman of the Board, who may consult with internal or external legal counsel as appropriate.

D. DEFINITION

In the context of this Code, a Director means any person who holds the position of Director in the Group, irrespective of any designation used, including anyone who follows the directives and advice of a corporate Director and who usually takes action, as well as an in-turn or substitute Director. It includes executive and non-executive Directors as well as executive and non-executive chairpersons.
